RMDDH and OHCHR train Human Rights Defenders in “International Human Rights Mechanisms”

- After conducting the first of a series of trainings on “Human Rights and Civic Space”, the Mozambique Human Rights Defenders Network (RMDDH), in partnership with the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights (OHCHR) in Mozambique, held on June 28, in the city of Pemba, a training on “International Human Rights Mechanisms”.

This initiative is part of the partnership between RMDDH and OHCHR and aims to provide Human Rights Defenders with knowledge on mechanisms and tools for the protection of Human Rights and the promotion of civic space.

The training brought together 34 Human Rights Defenders working in different areas and districts for the defense of human dignity in Cabo Delgado province.

As opening remarks, Sheila Nhancale, Coordinator of RMDDH, stressed the importance of the training so that Human Rights Defenders have the capacity to prevent or react in cases of Human Rights violations.

The facilitator of the training and OHCHR representative in Cabo Delgado, Manuela Cruz, made a brief summary of the first training and then introduced the International Human Rights Mechanisms to the members of the RMDDH, explaining the functioning of the Universal Periodic Review and the Special Treaties. The training programme “International Human Rights Mechanisms” is available at <https://lnkd.in/eW5KCfU>.

As a way of consolidating the issues covered during the training, in addition to practical exercises, trainees watched a live part of the UN Human Rights Council meeting

In Cabo Delgado, the defenders now trained are better coordinated since the opening of the RMDDH office in the city of Pemba in April 2022. The opening of this office is part of the implementation of the project “Building Resilience, Inclusion and Capacity of Human Rights Defenders (BRIC)”, funded by the European Union (EU). This office is strategic in the context of the armed conflict affecting Cabo Delgado, which increases the vulnerabilities and risks of Human Rights Defenders.
